New Mutual Fund Launched by Geier Funds Emphasizes Conservative Growth

Marriottsville, MD - Geier Funds today announced that its Geier Strategic Total Return Fund (GAMTX) has reached the $30 Million milestone mark in total assets managed. GAMTX was launched by Geier Funds on December 27, 2010 and emphasizes conservative growth, absolute return, and flexibility. The primary investment objective is to provide long-term total return from income and capital appreciation, with a focus on prudent investment risk and active fund management.

The Geier Strategic Total Return Fund (GAMTX) was designed by the team at Geier Asset Management, the fund's advisor, using their more than 25 years of experience in working with high net worth business owners and professional athletes to provide absolute return on investments. GAMTX has a minimum investment amount of $1,000.

"We have designed the Geier Strategic Total Return Fund to serve as a strong backbone for any investor's financial portfolio," said Thomas M. Geier, vice president and COO, Geier Asset Management, Inc. "We believe that GAMTX fills a gap in the market by providing a conservative mindset for investing over the long-term in all types of market conditions. We are proud to have reached the $30 Million milestone in assets managed in the fund in such a short period of time. We believe the launch and growth of our fund is a Cinderella story for Geier Asset Management as we strive to provide investors with viable options in a challenging market."

The Geier Strategic Total Return Fund (GAMTX) is managed by Thomas M. Geier, CPA, CFP®, PFS. Geier is Vice President and Chief Operations Officer of the Advisor, Chairman of the Advisor's Investment Committee, and has more than 25 years of portfolio management, investment, and financial experience.
